Your signing and returning a proxy card or completing a proxy on-line will not affect your right to attend the annual meeting and vote in person.

Any shareholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by:

- (1) filing with the Secretary of the Bank written notice of such revocation;
- (2) submitting again either on-line or in hard copy a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or
- (3) attending the annual meeting and voting in person.

Each share of common stock outstanding on March 26, 2018, the record date for the annual meeting, will be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at the meeting. Shareholders are not entitled to cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

If you appropriately mark, sign and return a proxy card or complete your proxy via the Internet in time to be voted at the meeting, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions. Subject to the rules described below regarding broker non-votes, if you give us your proxy but do not make any specific selections as to how you wish us to vote your shares, your shares will be voted by the proxy holders (i) “FOR” the election, as directors, of the Board of Directors’ nominees, (ii) “FOR” the ratification of the appointment of S.R. Snodgrass P.C. as the independent auditors of the Bank for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2018, and (iii) in connection with the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the annual meeting, in accordance with the judgment of the proxy holders.

Shares held in “Street Name”

If your shares are held in “street name” by a bank or brokerage firm, your bank or brokerage firm, as the record holder of your shares, may vote such shares as directed by you, or if not so directed, in their own discretion if permitted by the stock exchange or other organization of which they are members. Generally, brokers do not have discretionary authority to vote your shares in the election of directors, but do have discretionary authority to vote your shares with respect to the ratification of auditors. You should check the voting form used by that broker or nominee to determine whether you may vote on-line, by telephone or by another method.

Solicitation of Proxies

We will pay the expense of soliciting proxies. We expect that the solicitation of proxies will be primarily by mail. Our directors, officers and employees may also solicit proxies personally, by telephone, by e-mail and by fax.

Principal Shareholders

We are not aware of any person who beneficially owns more than 5% of the outstanding shares of our common stock as of March 26, 2018.

MATTER NO. 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our articles of incorporation provide that the Board of Directors of the Bank may from time to time fix the total number of directors on the Board at not less than five nor more than 25. Presently, the Board of Directors consists of 12 members. The terms of four of the current directors expire at the annual meeting.

The Board of Directors has nominated Don D. Lewis, Mark V. Neiswonger, Thomas B. Ray and Richard A. Shirey for election to the Board as Class 3 directors.

All of the Board of Directors' nominees are current directors of the Bank. No notice of nomination of any person for election as a director was received from any shareholder.

Shares represented by properly executed proxies will be voted for the Board of Directors' nominees unless you specify otherwise in your proxy. If you wish to withhold authority from the proxyholders to vote for the election of directors or to withhold authority to vote for any individual nominee, you may do so on the proxy card.

The four nominees for director receiving the highest number of votes cast at the annual meeting will be elected as Class 3 directors. Votes withheld from a nominee have no legal effect.

If any nominee should become unable to serve, the proxy holders named in the proxy may vote for another nominee. However, we have no reason to believe that any of the nominees will be unable to serve as a director, if elected.

The table below contains information concerning the nominees for election as directors at the annual meeting, and the continuing members of the Board of Directors, including their principal occupations or employment during the past five years, their ages and the year in which they began serving as a director of the Bank. Director Independence

The Board of Directors has determined that each nominee and each continuing director is "independent," as defined by the applicable listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market, except for James L. Kifer, the president, chief executive officer, and chief financial officer of the Bank.

Board Meetings and Committees

The Board of Directors of the Bank has a standing audit committee. The Board also has a stock option committee and a human resources committee, which together perform all of the functions typically performed by a compensation committee. The Board of Directors also has a nominating committee for the selection of nominees for election as directors.

Audit Committee. The primary duties and responsibilities of the Bank's audit committee are to:

- Oversee that management maintains the reliability and integrity of the accounting policies and financial reporting and disclosure practices of the Bank;
- Oversee that management establishes and maintains processes to assure that an adequate system of internal controls is functioning within the Bank; and

- Oversee that management establishes and maintains processes to assure compliance by the Bank with all applicable laws, regulations and corporate policy.

In connection with these duties, the audit committee is responsible for the appointment, compensation, oversight and termination of our independent auditors and our internal auditors. The audit committee is responsible also for, among other things, reporting to the Bank's Board of Directors on the results of the annual audit, and reviewing the Bank's annual audited financial statements. The Bank's audit committee also reviews the Bank's system of internal control and audit with management and the independent auditors, and reviews material pending legal proceedings involving the Bank and other contingent liabilities. This committee also is responsible for establishing guidelines for assuring responsibility for the timely filing of the Bank's regulatory reports. The audit committee also is responsible for receiving and responding to complaints and concerns relating to accounting and auditing matters.

The Audit Committee Charter is not available on the Bank's website. However, a copy of the Audit Committee Charter is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement.

The audit committee met three times during fiscal 2017. The members of the Bank's audit committee are Chairman Stephen J. Jaworski, J. Fred Cherico, William E. Hager, III, Mark V. Neiswonger, Don D. Lewis and Richard A. Shirey. Each member is "independent," as defined by the applicable listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market.

Stock Option Committee. The Bank's stock option committee serves as the administrator of the Bank's outstanding stock options. It does not currently have a charter. This committee met two times during fiscal 2017. The members of this committee are Chairman Susanne A. Burns, William E. Hager, III, Rodney R. Flick, Stephen J. Jaworski, H. Jerome Heffner, Jr., and J. Fred Cherico. Each member is "independent," as defined by the applicable listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market.

Human Resources Committee. The Bank's human resources committee establishes and monitors all recruitment, hiring and employment practices and policies to insure that the Bank's human resources are deployed in the most effective fashion. Additionally, this committee approves certain compensation as described below, and is responsible for ensuring that the Bank adheres to ethical and moral practices and meets all regulatory compliance issues. This committee also is responsible for conducting regular performance reviews of the Bank's chief executive officer.

The human resources committee consists of Chairman Rodney R. Flick, James L. Kifer, William E. Hager III, Stephen J. Jaworski, Susanne A. Burns, J. Fred Cherico, J. Todd Bish, Mark V. Neiswonger, and H. Jerome Heffner, Jr. It does not currently have a charter. It met six times during fiscal 2017. Each member is "independent," as defined by the applicable listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market, except for Mr. Kifer. However, Mr. Kifer's compensation is determined by the human resources committee and approved by a majority of the Bank's Board of Directors, and Mr. Kifer is not permitted to be present during voting or deliberations on such matter, and the compensation of the Bank's other executive officer is determined by a majority of the independent members of the Bank's Board of Directors.

Nominating Committee. The Bank's nominating committee is responsible for identifying individuals qualified to serve as Board members, and recommending to the full Board of Directors nominees for election as directors. To fulfill this role, the committee reviews the composition of the full Board to determine any qualifications and areas of expertise that may be needed to further enhance the composition of the Board, and if so, works with management in attracting candidates with those qualifications. Candidates must be willing and able to devote the required amount of time to Bank business. Although the Bank has no policy specifically regarding diversity, in evaluating candidates, the committee seeks to achieve a balance of knowledge, experience and capability on the Board. The committee believes that having directors with relevant experience in business and industry, finance and other areas, and directors with significant business relationships in the local community, is beneficial to the Bank and the Board as a whole. The committee also believes that each of the nominees and current directors has the financial and business expertise and business relationships that meet this objective.

Before nominating a sitting director for reelection at an annual meeting, the committee will consider the director's performance on the Board and whether the director's reelection will assist the Bank in maintaining quality corporate governance. The nominating committee consists of Chairman William E. Hager III, Susanne A. Burns, Rodney R. Flick, Don D. Lewis, Thomas B. Ray, and J. Todd Bish. The Board of Directors of the Bank has also determined that all of the members of the nominating committee are independent (as independence is defined in the applicable listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market). The nominating committee does not have a written charter. It held one meeting during 2017, at which it selected the nominees for election at last year's annual meeting of shareholders.

When seeking candidates for director positions, the nominating committee may solicit suggestions from incumbent directors, management or others. The nominating committee would also consider any nominees recommended by shareholders of the Bank for election to the Bank's Board of Directors provided that the recommendations are made in accordance with the procedures described in this Proxy Statement under "Shareholder Proposals for 2019 Annual Meeting." Shareholders' nominations that comply with these procedures would receive the same consideration as nominees received from other sources.

Other Committees. The Bank has other committees composed of directors or officers of the Bank which meet for specific purposes, including an executive committee, a loan committee, an ALCO committee, and an information technology committee. The executive committee's function is to respond to issues that require swift resolution or when convening the full Board is impractical. The loan committee reviews, and recommends to the Board for its approval, the Bank's loan policy and any subsequent revisions. It also is responsible for the implementation and monitoring of the Bank's adherence to that policy. The committee also serves as the first level of review for approval and recommendation to the Board of all loan transactions exceeding the lending authority of the loan officers. The committee monitors the quality and performance of the loan portfolio, receives copies of all formal internal and external loan reviews, and establishes guidelines for and reviews the adequacy of loan loss reserves. The technology committee reviews the Bank's operating systems including, but not limited to, electronic, telephone, electrical, and other interrelated sources, the failure of which may disrupt or cause interruptions in the Bank's service delivery system.

Director Attendance at Board and Committee Meetings

Thirteen Board meetings were held during fiscal year 2017. During fiscal 2017, all directors attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and the committees of the Board on which they served.

Audit Committee Report

The audit committee reviewed with management and S.R. Snodgrass P.C. the overall scope and plan for the independent audit for the year ended December 31, 2017 performed by S.R. Snodgrass P.C., and has reviewed the Bank's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017, and the related report by S.R. Snodgrass P.C. It also has discussed the financial statements and the report with management and with S.R. Snodgrass P.C.

The Bank's audit committee appointed S.R. Snodgrass P.C. as the Bank's independent accountant for the year ending December 31, 2018. The audit committee has discussed with S.R. Snodgrass P.C. the matters required to be discussed by AU Section 380, The Auditor's Communication With Those Charged With Governance, and has received the written disclosures and the letter from them required by the applicable requirements regarding S.R. Snodgrass P.C.'s communications with the audit committee concerning independence. The audit committee has reviewed the materials received from S.R. Snodgrass P.C., has discussed with them their independence, and has satisfied itself as to S.R. Snodgrass P.C.'s independence.

The audit committee acts only in an oversight capacity, and in doing so relies on the work and assurances of the Bank's management and its independent auditors.

Based on the audit committee's review of the financial statements and the independent auditors' report thereon, and the audit committee's discussions with management and the independent auditors, the audit committee has recommended to our Board of Directors that the audited financial statements of the Bank for the year ended December 31, 2017 be made available to our shareholders.

Code of Ethics

The Bank has adopted a Code of Ethics that applies to all of its directors, officers and employees, including its principal executive officer, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer or controller. The Bank will furnish, without charge, a copy of its Code of Ethics to any person, upon written request made to Mr. James L. Kifer, at the Bank's offices located at 333 Main Street, Clarion, Pennsylvania 16214.

Option Grants in Last Fiscal Year

No stock options were granted to our chief executive officer in the year ended December 31, 2017.

Aggregated Option Exercises in Last Fiscal Year

No options were exercised by our chief executive officer during the year ended December 31, 2017.

Indebtedness of Management

The Bank offers various types of loans to its directors, officers, and employees. Under applicable Federal law, any loan made to a director, officer, employee or other affiliate is required to be on substantially the same terms and conditions available to non-related borrowers (in particular as to interest rate and collateral). In addition, the risk of nonpayment must not be greater than the risk of nonpayment on loans to non-related borrowers, and the loan must be approved by a majority of the full Board of Directors, with the loan applicant not voting or influencing the vote.

Transactions with Related Persons

The Bank recognizes that transactions with its officers and directors or with their related family members or affiliated businesses (collectively, "Related Persons Transactions") can present potential or actual conflicts of interest. Nevertheless, the Bank recognizes that there are Related Person Transactions which may be in, or may not be inconsistent with, the best interests of the Bank and its shareholders, including but not limited to situations where the Bank may obtain products or services from, or provide products and services to, related persons on an arm's length basis on terms comparable to those obtained from or provided to unrelated third parties. The Board of Directors reviews any actual or potential Related Person Transactions, and, based on all relevant facts and circumstances, determines if it is in the best interests of the Bank and its shareholders to approve, reject, modify or ratify the Related Person Transaction.

Certain directors and officers of the Bank are customers of and have had banking transactions with the Bank in the ordinary course of business. Similar transactions may be expected to occur in the future. All loans and commitments to loan were made under substantially the same terms, including interest rates, collateral, and repayment terms, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other non-related persons and, in our opinion, do not involve more than the normal risk of collection or present other unfavorable features.

Board Leadership Structure

We separate the roles of Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board in recognition of the differences between the two roles. The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for the day to day leadership and performance of the Bank. The Chairman of the Board provides guidance to the Chief Executive Officer and sets the agenda for Board meetings and presides over meetings of the full Board. Both individuals, together with input from the full Board, are responsible for setting the strategic direction for the Bank. We believe that this is the most effective leadership structure for the Bank.

Our Board's Role in Risk Oversight

The Board's role in the Bank's risk oversight process includes receiving regular reports from senior management on areas of material risk to the Bank, including operational, financial, legal and regulatory risks. Our Board administers its risk oversight function directly and through both its Audit Committee and ALCO Committee. The Board and each of these Committees regularly discuss with management our major risk exposures, their potential financial impact on the Bank, and the steps we take to manage them.

MATTER NO. 2

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Background

The audit committee of the Board of Directors has appointed S.R. Snodgrass P.C. as independent auditors of the Bank for the year ending December 31, 2018, and has further directed that the appointment of such auditors be submitted for ratification by the shareholders at the annual meeting.

The Bank is seeking shareholder ratification of the audit committee's selection of the Bank's independent auditors even though the Bank is not legally required to do so. If the Bank's shareholders ratify the audit committee's selection, the audit committee nonetheless may, in their discretion but subject to the approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities, retain another independent auditing firm at any time during the year if the audit committee feels that such change would be in the best interest of the Bank. Alternatively, in the event that this proposal is not approved by the Bank's shareholders, the audit committee may re-evaluate its decision.

A representative of S.R. Snodgrass P.C. will attend the annual meeting, will be extended an opportunity to make a statement, if he or she so desires, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Audit and All Other Fees

The following table presents fees for professional services rendered by S.R. Snodgrass P.C. for the audit of the Bank's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 and the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016.

	2017	2016
Audit fees (a)	$ 39,200	$ 38,200
Audit-related fees	--	--
Tax fees	--	--
All other fees	--	--
Total	$ 39,200	$ 38,200

(a) Audit fees for 2017 and 2016 consist of fees for the audit of the Bank's annual financial statements.

No fees were billed by S.R. Snodgrass P.C. during the Bank's 2017 and 2016 fiscal year for any other services rendered to the Bank other than the amounts set forth above.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

All auditing services (which may entail providing comfort letters in connection with securities underwritings) and all non-audit services to be provided to the Bank by its auditors that are not prohibited by law must be pre-approved by the Bank's audit committee pursuant to such processes as are determined to be advisable, before such services can commence. Pre-approval shall include blanket pre-approval of non-prohibited services for limited dollar amounts which the audit committee, in its business judgment, does not believe possess the potential for abuse or conflict. The audit committee has not granted any such blanket pre-approval as of the date of this proxy statement. All the services described in the table above were approved by the audit committee.

Ratification Requirements

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the annual meeting, assuming a quorum is present, is required to ratify the audit committee's appointment of S.R. Snodgrass P.C. as independent auditors of the Bank for the year ending December 31, 2018.
